

My first time

My first foray into the sex industry occurred after a heroin habits' amongst our travels. After our absolutely the way to go.

Rather late in the afternoon of my first adventure, I finally decided to take to the streets to make some quick cash. My partner, and my best friend who was visiting at the time, were distraught and bewildered - but I was excited by the drama, and the thought of being able to purchase some drugs! My self esteem, never one of my most pronounced characteristics, was pleasantly comforted by some 'Serepax'.

My 24 year old body was - with eating not being really one of my regular activities - slender in the extreme. I costumed up in a purple satin 1950's gown with a net petticoat and very, very sexy black pointy shoes (Italian, of course!).

I recall being pleased with my make up and my general appearance - there is, however - no real way to recall with any kindness my hair 'style' - a delightfully genuine 1980's mullet.

I lived in St Kilda - one of Australia's most prominent street based sex industry 'arenas' - so I literally only had to 'pop up the road' to my new workplace.

I arrived on a corner, and was picked up virtually straight away for a quick little rendezvous in one of the area's gracious footy oval car parks.

I still remember being impressed by his car - a 'Jag'.

I felt like a Queen! Powerful! Beautiful! Sexy! Special! Lusted after!

There were so many incidents and people which shaped my later experiences in the industry, but this first afternoon/night of sex work remains my 'best experience of sex working'. Aside from memories, what stays with me is how my experiences as a sex worker has allowed me opportunities and knowledge of myself that still resonates with me today.

Jules

I felt like a Queen! Powerful! Beautiful! Sexy! Special! Lusted after!

luscious and impossibly romantic 'honeymoon' in Kashmir. My partner and I arrived back in Australia having acquired 'sizable somewhat 'limited' resources 'expired' - my long examined thoughts of becoming a local street based hooker seemed

